HAZEL GREEN, WOLFE COUNTY, KENTUCKY. THURSDAY, MAY 20, 1897.

NUMBER 8.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We want a letter from each correspondent every week to reach this office not later than Tuesday evening, even if it contains nothing more important than Parson Jones and Brother Smith swapping nags. This may seem foolish to you, but you do as we say and we will answer for the consequences. What THE HERALD wants is a record of plain facts of interest to the people in your neighborhood, and not a verbose effusion appealing only to the egotism and vanity of the writer.

WOLFE COUNTY.

Lane Lillies.

Farmers are busy trying to plant corn between showers.

Thos. C. Hollon is confined to his room with heart trouble.

J. R. Elkins has got sixty-five acres of corn planted. Beat that, Grassy Creek, if you can.

We have singing every Sunday evening at the new church. Taylor Sewell is class leader.

William J. Hollon, of Jackson, passed through here Saturday, en route to Morgan county to see his first love.

Nathan Hollon is preparing to move to Hazel Green. We haven't learned as yet what his occupation will be.

On Thursday of last week Caleb Campbell, of near Campton, in the latest style led to the altar, which was tastefully and charmingly decorated with the rarest and sweetest flowers, a lovely and beautiful bride, Miss Rosa M. Hollon, and then and there before the eyes of Divine Providence and many earthly witnesses, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony. This capped the climax of the long expected wedding and everything culminated in a blaze of glory. The ceremony was read by ex-Jailer John R. Hobbs. The attendants were Thos. C. Hollon and Miss Belle Patton. The bride is a beautiful Rose of 17 years; the groom is a young man of high ability and sterling integrity. May their pathway ever be strewn with flowers is the wish of

May 17. SHANGHAI.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Rev. J. A. Sewell preached at Elkins Chapel on Sunday last.

Scott Gibbs, who has consumption, is very low with no sign of his recovery.

Miss Caroline Sewell, of Lane, is paying her sister, Mrs. M. F. Horton, a visit this week.

Mrs. George Terrell, who has been on the sick list for several days, is well enough to be out again.

Benj. Sewell, the newly appointed postmaster at Campton, is here among his people this week fishing, etc.

John Graham is dangerously bad off. He is not able to tell what ails him, but the opinion of the people is that he has got a heart trouble.

Uncle John and Aunt Polly Hollon, two of the oldest persons in this section, paid their daughter, Mrs. J. A. Sewell, a visit on Sunday last.

Several of the prettiest belles and nice young men will take a flying trip to Campton the latter part of this week to take in the entertainment of the K. W. college.

Little John Sewell mysteriously disappeared from home last Sunday. When he made his return his mother asked him where he had been and what he had been doing. He replied, "Mother, I have been down to G. S. Terrell's entertaining one of the most blushing beauties beneath fair heaven's dome."

May 18. GOLD BUG.

Toliver Topics.

Wm. Toliver is at Torrent on business.

Uncle Bill McNabb is suffering much with rheumatism.

Aaron Mannin, of Omer, stayed over Saturday and Sunday in Toliver neighborhood.

There will be an entertainment at Sandfield Children's day. Particulars will be given in our next.

We learn that Frank Mannin has accepted a position as brakeman on a freight train on the L. & E. road.

Stephen McPherson left Monday morning for Illinois, where he will endeavor to make his living by the sweat of his brow.

A series of meetings are to begin at Sandfield next Friday night, to be conducted by Revs. Tyler, Combs and Fuls, of Campton.

Many of the young folks of this neighborhood are talking of attending the entertainment at Campton. Of course they expect a nice time.

Miss Lou Ward, of H. G. A., and Miss Mollie Cox, of Pomeroyton, are spending a few days at home with friends and relatives in this part of the moral vineyard.

The Sunday school at Sandfield is progressing well. We have an average of fifty in regular attendance, and much interest is being manifested. May it grow in prosperity.

Uncle Jim Wheatley and John Shoemaker have just returned from Kentucky river, where they have been on a fishing expedition. They had good luck and caught about eighty pounds of fine fish.

May 18. SHINER.

Gillmore Gleanings.

E. C. Jones has gone to Lee county on business.

There will be some fruit—peaches and apples—but not a general good prospect for most other kinds.

W. L. Gose and E. C. Jones returned Sunday from taking Mrs. Elizabeth Bush to the asylum at Lexington.

Farmers are about ten days late in this vicinity, owing to so much wet weather. Corn planting is just under good headway this week.

May 18. UNCLE REMUS.

MORGAN COUNTY.

West Liberty Whisperings.

Rev. S. J. Adams preached at Caney Sunday.

W. W. Manker, of Maytown, is visiting in town.

The roads from here to Morehead are nearly impassable.

J. H. Cole lost ten fine hogs last week, caused by eating burrs.

W. M. Kendall took a nice bunch of cattle to Elk Fork last week to graze.

Robert Dicken says he will commence making brick tomorrow if winter breaks.

We have looked and looked but have never seen the air ship yet—am still looking.

Forty or fifty conversions at the Methodist church during Bro. Honney's meeting.

A great many of the town folks attended meeting at the Wells school house Sunday evening.

Ye weary traveler can find rest at J. H. Cole's new hotel, as it is about completed. Jolly Jim can entertain and care for you.

May 17. 16 TO 1.

Ezel Exotics.

Misses Ora Cecil and Liza Henry have fever.

J. F. Havens, salesman for a Cincinnati grocery company, interviewed our merchants last week.

Misses Rachel Nickell and Myrtle Woolery visited Mrs. Mary Ingram, on Grassy, Sunday; "buggy back" they said.

Miss Laura Dennis, whose illness we have reported heretofore, is no better, and her recovery is thought to be doubtful.

Millard Dennis, a prominent farmer of Grassy creek, and wife were the guests of Dr. Nickell Saturday night and Sunday.

Dr. Giverton, of Grassy creek, preached a very interesting sermon in the church house Sunday night to an attentive audience.

J. W. Quickell, of Caney, was in town Monday, and from his talk we conceived that he was not satisfied with the way the county primary terminated.

Mrs. S. B. Kash, of Hazel Green visited Miss Laura Dennis from Sunday till Monday morning, when she returned to Hazel Green to attend to her millinery trade.

Berry Pieratt and David Rose, Ezel's drummers, left yesterday for Rothwell, from which place they will go to the L. & E. and C. & O. railways, respectively, to drum for their houses.

Jas. Nickell and Q. C. Daniel have the contract for building the new school house at Ezel, their bid, being the lowest, was $407. Already timber and stone are being procured preparatory to its erection, and ere long Ezel will have the best school building in the county.

A. T. Pieratt, our genial postmaster and merchant, left Saturday for Kiddville, Montgomery county, to accompany his daughter, Mrs. Dr. Lockhart, to Ezel. They returned yesterday evening. Mrs. Lockhart will spend a month with her parents and relatives here.

Your scribe attended church services at old Grassy Sunday at 11 a. m., and heard Prof. Halley deliver his last sermon in Morgan county, for a while anyway, and perhaps always. Services were attended by an immense crowd and all seemed to enjoy the sermon splendidly, after which your scribe partook of a luxurious dinner with Scott Oldfield, of Mize.

May 18. O. K.
[The rule of this office is not to boom any local candidate who does not announce in the THE HERALD.—ED.]

Maytown Missiles.

All of our people that could get a cow, calf, sheep or pig are on the Mt. Sterling market. Too much rain to plant corn, hence the traders all gone.

Uncle Joe Clark, the boss carpenter of the mountains of Kentucky, is putting up W. W. Manker's mill house. The prospect for a good wheat crop was never better here the 20th of May. Bro. Manker will be ready to make flour by harvest if he has good luck.

Bro. E. Lockhart was elected from Maytown church as a delegate to the district conference at Campton; Mrs. Belle Manker and Miss Lillian Patrick delegates to represent our Sunday school at the same time and place. Our Sunday school on Sunday elected Miss Nannie Day a delegate to represent our school at the Sunday school convention to be held at Elkins chapel, Wolfe county, July 3, 1897.

Find enclosed cash for bills ordered for Hall & Co. carding machine. [Many thanks for prompt returns.—ED.] The firm will start a corn mill next week. J. T. Sexton has the contract for building the mill house, and will have it ready for the machinery this week. Hope the readers of THE HERALD will not understand me to say that he did the work. No! no! Tom has never been accused of that; he being president of the "sons of rest" I am very careful about making my weekly report.

May 18. WINGLESS.

Academy Notes.

Quite a number of H. G. A. pupils will be examined tomorrow for certificates to teach.

Dudley Howard left Saturday to arrange for teaching a school this summer, as did also J. F. Benton.

Miss Nannie Osborn is visiting her parents this week, and Samuel Osborn is at home on account of sickness.

Examinations begin on Monday at 8 o'clock. Faithful pupils remain in school through examinations. Shirking at such a time shows lack of thorough work.

ACADEMITE.

The following postmasters for this section were appointed Friday: Elk Fork, Morgan county, F. B. Hutchinson; Frenchburg, James Armitage; Lonesome, Menefee county, G. M. Hanson; Lykins, Thos. Keeton; Mary, M. F. Montgomery; Hager, S. P. Simer, all in Magoffin.

THE PENCILER AND THE CAT.

Adam Didn't Know When He Was Doing Well, and Eve Broke the Bank.

"Suppose you were a man," asked The Penciler of his Cat, as The Cat sauntered in with a spring feverish sort of an expression upon its face and a disgusted look in its one eye.

"Well, I'm not a man and I'm glad of it," broke in The Cat.

"Hold on, I'm not through yet. Just suppose you were a man, what would be the first thing you would do after you died—after your ghost entered the land of dreams, so to speak?"

"The first thing I'd do?" repeated The Cat. "Why that's easy. The first thing I'd do would be to hunt up the ghost of Adam and kick it full of holes; and then, if I could find Mrs. Adam, whose maiden name was Eve, I would proceed to pull out all of her back hair. You see, my boy, it's this way," continued The Cat, as it stopped to scratch beneath its chin, "Adam and his wife are responsible for all our troubles. Things are not carried on as the Creator intended that they should be. In the first place, the Garden of Eden, of which Adam was made overseer, was not laid off as a temporary park or flower garden for Mr. and Mrs. Adam's sole benefit, where they might have a private menagerie and loafing place generally, with a monopoly on the soda stands and milk shake machines. No, sir, it was not so intended, and in the name of humanity I protest that there has been a great misunderstanding of the original plan," remarked The Cat.

The Penciler waited for The Cat to resume, and presently it continued, "It was intended that the Garden of Eden should last through all the ages for the enjoyment of the millions of men and women who were to inhabit the globe. Under the original plans and specifications, man was not to work at all and all seasons were to be spring. There was to be no disease, no trouble and no plagues. Think of this. Say that this morning, instead of being at work, you were out in that section of the Garden of Eden which took in the 'medical spring' down on Dick's river, and that now, as the sun is coming down hot and the air here is full of clouds, you were there swinging in a hammock, with a trained monkey on one side fanning you with a palm leaf, and another one ready on the other hand to answer your commands. As you lay there entirely oblivious of fusion tickets, gas bills, the bank tax, etc., the breeze would steal down the hillside bearing the incense of a million roses and from overhead would come the songs of nature's choristers. When the dinner hour arrived, a glance from you would send a monkey scampering into the neighboring grove, and directly he would return bearing dates, bananas, oranges, broiled quail, manna, cigars and the morning papers, without a thought from you as to why, whence or wherefore. You would then take a nap, and after dinner your whole family would go out for a walk through the zoological garden. In the evening you would return to your hammock, wrap the drapery of night about you and lie down to pleasant dreams."

"Now this is what I would call a very rich snap," resumed The Cat, "But look what Adam did! He couldn't stand prosperity. Like many of his offspring of today, he didn't know when he was well off, although we are told that it was Mrs. Adam who broke the bank, so to speak, and put the garden into the hands of a receiver. Anyway, the couple developed a well-defined case of swell head and concluded to run things in opposition to the rules and regulations. Then our troubles began. With the advent of the snake into the firm came all the other ills which have been multiplying until this day. Along with the fall of Adam came high laundried collars, instead of the cool and flexible grape spring which I imagine Garden of Eden swells placed about their necks; and when Eve cast off her charming gown of fig leaves she put on tyrannical stays, hot and stiff and fluffy shirt waists, and all that sort of thing. In fact, all of the curses of civilization, from mean whisky to the afternoon teas, are traceable directly to that conspiracy between Eve and the snake. Adam might have saved the day, but Eve, the original new woman, bossed the old man and he fell. That's why I say I have a personal grievance against the whole layout, and when I do enter the other realm I shall square myself with Adam, Eve and the snake or raise the biggest mass that will have been seen in spirit land," remarked The Cat.—Harry Giovannoli, in Danville Advocate.

Kentucky Pie Hunters in Washington.

Senator DeBoe tonight indorsed Mr. K. J. Hampton, late a candidate for United States marshal, for internal revenue agent for Kentucky and Tennessee. The matter will be a little surprise to Mr. Hampton, who knows nothing about what his friends have been doing for him. Mr. Hampton made a hard fight for marshal and he is known to be one of the most deserving Republicans in the state. The senator willingly endorsed him for the position. The place pays about $3,000 and expenses.

It is said here tonight that Mr. N. T. Neal will be Barnett's deputy in the surveyor of the port's office. It is thought that the eleventh district will be well taken care of in the minor positions.

Dr. Hunter has been offered by the president his choice among four foreign missions. Peru and Brazil are the only two known, one is thought to be in Europe, and the other can not be located. He is now trying to make up his mind just which one he will take.

A party of successful and unsuccessful pie-hunters and a few others called upon Dr. Hunter this afternoon and presented him with a fine gold watch.

Adj. Gen. Dan Collier had another long interview with Senator Deboe this afternoon, but could get no satisfaction. He was informed that Barnett was certain to be surveyor of the port.

Congressman Pugh's pie hunting constituents are doing a lot of kicking because Mr. Pugh has not worried himself very much as to whether or not they get offices. They say that he has been saving his powder for Judge Thomas and has made everything else a secondary matter. All of which is doubtless true.

Senator Deboe and friends of Gov. Bradley expected him here yesterday. The governor evidently changed his mind and concluded that he would do friends more harm than good by coming. The afterthought was doubtless wise upon the part of the governor.

The friends of Crumbaugh and Buckner still claim that they are in the fight to win. There is either some big bluffing going on or Senator Deboe's slate will receive a severe fracture.

The four Republican members of the Kentucky delegation last night indorsed Dr. James for marshal. There are several names on Senator Deboe's slate that will hardly be thus honored. If so it will be reluctantly.

Most of the defeated candidates for state offices will go home tonight. Attorney General Taylor, Col. Taylor, of Ohio, and Auditor Stone will also leave. —Washington cor. Courier-Journal, May 15.

AN ACROSTIC.

For THE HERALD.]

Written to Miss Malla James, by E. O. Moulin, of Bushton, Ill., on receipt of a letter to her at that place, announcing the illness of her sister, Miss Virgie, of our town.

Morning dawns—a purple glow hangs o'er eastern skies,
And everybody is merry; but for you—I see it in your eyes;
Last night you got a letter—you must at once depart,
Lord! This, then, is the trouble which has settled on your heart,
And it is your darling sister, who on her sickbed lies.

Jesus, too, is at her bedside—He is everywhere,
And your sorrows and your troubles will not be so hard to bear;
More hope, more love, more friendship there will be around
Every place and every home, where Jesus can be found,
So drive away your sorrow, friend, for He will surely care.

No More Hard Times.

EVERY DOG HAS HIS DAY.

Ole Doc Hunter don't los' his grip,
An' mout as well not made dat trip;
Kaze Mars Deboe don't got er sinch
On all dat pie—yes, eb'ry inch.

Sum is apple and sum ar' peach,
But ole Doc Hunter, he can't reach;
Crus' an' all b'longs ter Mars Deboe,
An' he gw'it gib hit ter dem he kno'.

He don't promis' dat reb'n' place
Ter Kinzie Hampt'n by wa' oh grace;
Dat kivers Kalitue' and Ten'ersee,
An' Mars Kinzee, he git all dem fee:

Him uster be a papah man
Wid de Sun an' 'Publian clan
Down hea' in Clark, Winchester town,
But de 'Publian papah hit wen' down,
An' Kin' ter Wash'nton went ter sta',
Whar he an' ter dis berry da';
An' all dat time lookin' wid one eye
Fur a grate big slice ob 'Kinley pie.

An' now he's got hit good an' sho',
We hope he'll nebb'er ax fo' mo';
John Bosley arter hab er chance,
Fo' de part he play'd in dat dance.

He went roun' an' speecherfied,
An' on Democ'rats allus lied;
An' he's nebb'er yet got 'ward or pay,
But eb'ry dog will hab him day.

SENATOR HUNTER, nit, is in for a place in Peru or some other foreign shore, and he will probably besent there that he can't trouble us any more.

THE dispatches announce that Dr. Hunter has been presented with a gold watch by friends in Washington. He had a watch at Frankfort, if we mistake not, which announced both time and testimony upon which he was indicted for bribery, and maybe this latter presentation was only a gentle reminder of that affair.

INGRATITUDE is the basest of all sins to which the human kind is heir, and when one thinks of the noble and successful struggle Hunter made for Bradley, it looks like friendship is a snare. Who but Hunter, backed by Hanna, could have landed Bradley, a backwoods statesman, as a winner in this state, and yet he's swiped from the slate by the ingrate. Yes, "politics is h—" and no mistake.

AFTER reading our eulogy on James D. Black, in our last issue, one of our friends remarked, "You were instrumental in the election of one John Young Brown, were you not, and he turned you down?" "No," we replied, "he gave us the cold shoulder." It was all that he could do, for by nature he's untrue; he asked us to be his friend, and his wife a letter did send; saying if you'll help him in the race, I will see that you get a place. But when he came to dish out the pie, he proved he'd told a lie; for from the state senate he had a man resign, that he could go to Covington and hold him in line. He wanted to go to the senate of the United States, but the legislators said, we don't want ingrates; he's now a one-horse lawyer in the town of Louisville, and a very small grist in that political mill. And now that his punishment is just, to let up on him we must; but he should bear in mind that "I am" from no conditions rise, act well your part, there the honor lies.

"Children cry for Castoria,"
And Republicans for pie;
But confidence is not restored,
And prosperity noways nigh.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK H. G. A.

Order of Exercises at Hazel Green Academy, Beginning Saturday Evening, May 29, and Closing Wednesday Evening, June 2, 1897.

Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock, young men's seventh annual declamatory contest and young ladies' sixth annual declamatory contest. The contestants are W. H. Whitt, of Magoffin county; C. E. Ledford, of Montgomery county; W. H. Roark, of Magoffin county; E. P. Rogers, of Estill county; B. M. Mannin, of Wolfe county, and W. C. Campbell, of Wolfe county; Miss Eva Jackson, of Montgomery county; Miss Lydia Ledford, of Montgomery county, and Miss Monrovia Testerman, of Morgan county.

Monday, May 31, at 8 o'clock p. m., public entertainment by the two societies.

Tuesday, June 1, at 9 o'clock a. m., final session of school; at 3 o'clock p. m., annual meeting of alumni, patrons, pupils and friends of the school; at 8 o'clock p. m., a debate between representatives of the Haut et Bon and Utile Dulci societies; affirmatives—W. H. Kash and E. O. Taulbee, of Wolfe county; negatives—R. K. Nickell and Noah Cisco, of Morgan county.

Wednesday, June 2—Commencement day, at 10:30 a. m., address by H. E. Onev, subject, "Alone, Yet Not All Alone;" address by Rev. J. C. Kendrick, of Danville, Ky.; presentation of diplomas, medals, etc.; at 8 o'clock p. m., annual address to Y. P. S. C. E. by Rev. Kendrick, after which will be held the annual fete on the lawn at the Home.

The Westfield (Ind.) News prints the following in regard to an old resident of that place: Frank McAvoy, for many years in the employ of the L. N. A. & C. Ry. here, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for ten years or longer—I can never without it in my family. I consider it the best remedy of the kind manufactured. I take pleasure in recommending it." It is a specific for all bowel disorders. For sale by J. T. Day.

The supply of cattle in Eastern Kentucky is not equal to the present demand. Purchasers are canvassing the country closely, and where a cow is well bred her produce is sold at $10, the purchaser taking all risks. Cattle in Eastern Kentucky have been greatly improved, and hence the unusual demand. There is also a great demand for hogs, but both hogs and cattle are very scarce.—Mt. Sterling Advocate.

The courthouse at Lexington was destroyed by fire last Friday morning. Nearly all the records were saved, but the fine marble statue, "Woman Triumphant," Joel T. Hart's masterpiece, was completely demolished by the heavy bell falling on it. The ladies of Lexington have already taken steps to replace it with a copy. It is thought that the clay model is still in existence in Italy.

Hon. W. O. Mize, of Hazel Green, was in the city until Monday on business. From here he went to Danville to visit his son Carl, who is a graduate of Centre college this year. From Danville Mr. Mize goes to Cincinnati on business. He will be absent from home several weeks.—Mt. Sterling Advocate.

Each and every holder of stock in the Hazel Green fair should not fail to attend the meeting of the association next Saturday and help to make the fair next fall a success. We must have a fair by all means.

Miss Bertha James, one of our attractive sweet sixteen-year-old girls, has returned home from Hazel Green where she has been attending the high school.—Jeffersonville cor. Sentinel-Democrat.

Mrs. A. J. Day, of Caney, had the misfortune, Sunday before last, to fall and break her wrist, since which time she has been suffering much pain.

There will be an election for school trustee on Saturday, June 5.

Elder J. T. Pieratt returned Tuesday from Bath county. He preached at Pleasant Valley church, on the Stone Quarry fork of Salt Lick, Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night, where he succeeded in roping in one recreant brother and lassoing two mavericks, the latter of which he branded by baptizing. Dr. Pieratt is a hustler, and always on the alert for the lost sheep of the fold.

Under date of May 15, a special to the Evening Post, from West Liberty, gives the following information: "News has just reached here of a general fight which is said to have occurred between the Whites on the North Fork yesterday. It is stated that two of them were dangerously if not fatally wounded by their cousin. The parties are all related, and the cause of the trouble cannot be ascertained."

A Paintsville special to the Evening Post says: "Reliable news has reached here that Abe Wiseman, aged sixty-four, killed Linville Allen, aged sixteen, in Magoffin county. Wiseman's son and young Allen, it is said, were engaged in a row, and the old man tried to prevent it and was attacked by Allen with a club, whereupon Wiseman picked up a knife and mauled Allen's brains out, killing him instantly. Wiseman is prostrated over the horrible affair, and owing to his extreme age it is thought that he cannot recover."

THE HERALD.

LOCAL LAONICS.

Frank Havens, the grocery drummer, was here Monday.

Clarence Bush has been appointed postmaster at Torrent.

Miss Rosa Belle Carson, of Lacy creek, was here shopping on Tuesday.

Judge Lynch, representing Patton Bros., Catlettburg, was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Kelse Murphy and sister, Miss Susie, of Blackwater, were here shopping on Tuesday.

Cart Quicksall made a flying trip to West Liberty on Tuesday, returning the same evening.

Dr. Nickell reports the birth of a girl baby to the wife of John Adams, of Lacy creek, on the 17th inst.

Ova Kash was here Tuesday after Dr. Mason Kash to go and see Miss Laura Dennis, of Ezel, who is dangerously ill with fever.

A subscriber in remitting for THE HERALD writes: "I would rather do without sugar in my coffee than the glorious old HERALD."

Mrs. Eliza Henry, daughter of John D. Henry, of Blackwater, has been quite ill of a fever, but was on Tuesday considered in a fair way to recovery.

After having a good home with W. T. Caskey and wife, indeed a daughter, Myrtle Ringo was called home a few days since, to the regret of both Mr. and Mrs. Caskey.

H. F. Pieratt has purchased the interest of his partner, Curtis Quicksall, in the firm of H. F. Pieratt & Co., and is now going it alone. Mr. Quicksall is still with the house, however, and will be glad to meet and wait upon his friends.

Do not fail to read the advertisement of H. F. Pieratt in this issue. Strange as it may appear to those to whom he has extended credit, he now wants some of the coin of the realm, and wants it p. d. q., or he'll have something more to say to you.

There will be a wedding today in which the destiny of a young man in Wolfe and a young lady of Morgan county will be united for life, and let us hope a pleasant one. Will give names next week, and the prospective bride has promised us a piece of the wedding cake.

Our young friend Ova Kash, of Ezel, was visiting here Saturday and Sunday. THE HERALD man remarked Saturday night that he was mighty glad to see Ova, as he had brought us two nice jobs of printing, and a young lady present echoed the observation by saying, "and the same back at you."

The Kentucky valley medical association will convene at Torrent on May 28 and 29. A banquet will be given by Dr. B. D. Cox, sr., president of the association. Good music and a special program arranged by Drs. Bush, Pryse and Irvin will be rendered. The Clark county medical society will meet with them. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Roe Havens announced a day or so ago that he would next week leave for Yale. His hearers at once jumping to the conclusion that he meant Yale college, exclaimed in one breath, "What for, you know it all now?" And he replied, "Why you blockheads, I don't mean Yale university, but the Yale lumber camp, in Bath, where I'm going to sell some goods."

T. A. Eastridge, the photographer, is again in Hazel Green, and all who wish photographs or enlarged pictures, should see him at once as his stay is limited to four weeks. He is so well known that an introduction is hardly necessary, many of the people here having mementos of his work, but if you want a good picture call on him now. Don't wait, and say after he has gone, "I wish a picture man would come along."

Recent sales of calves in this town indicate that the price of bovines is on the bounce. A few weeks since we noted the sale of a week old calf at $8 cash, and on Saturday Frost Wood sold one exactly three months' old for $15 in the coin of the realm. As neither of these innocents could boast of any blue blood imported or otherwise, and both were comparatively diminutive in size, it appears that the boomer breed is on the rise.

Our man about town called on Mrs. S. B. Kash, the milliner, Monday evening and found her busy trimming hats, in which occupation she said she had been engaged ever since her opening day. For fine hats her place presents the grandest display ever seen in our town, and she said she also carried a line of substantial goods which she could trim and sell very cheap, considering the materials. As an instance of what she can do in the matter of prices, she told of some sales she made at Winchester while en route home from Louisville, where she sold six finely trimmed hats. The milliners there asked just twice as much for the same article, and had to, because of the high rent and other expenses they have to meet. Between that point and home she sold 21 more hats. This, better than anything else indicates how cheap you can buy a first-class article. Her display of hats, bonnets and trimmings renders her store a regular "bower of beauty," and our lady friends who have not yet visited this emporium of fashion should do so at once, and our word for it, they will be delighted with the display. To name this and that "love of a bonnet" and the exquisitely trimmed hats would occupy too much of our space and give only an indefinite idea of the dream of loveliness one beholds upon entering the store, and the only way to realize the riches there to be found is to go and see for yourself. Mrs. Kash will give you a cordial greeting and take pleasure in showing her stock. She is an elegant little lady and deserves the success she is sure to have.

A lady of this town a few days since killed a forlorn looking hen, thinking it had the cholera, and subsequently dissected her, to arrive at a scientific solution of the cause of the disease, if such it proved to be. The hen was cut open, but proved not to be diseased, unless an aggravated case of egg-sagitation can be termed an affliction. In the egg-bag were 13 full sized hardshell eggs and seven well developed ones with soft shells. Our man about town did not see the surgical operation performed or eat of the hen-fruit thus harvested, but this is egg-sagitation the story as told to him. Can Craddock or any other man egg-sell it? If so, let 'em egg-sell!

Three young ladies of this place visited our office Saturday night to bring in some copy for "the dear old HERALD," and for the short space covered by their stay it is safe to say this office contained more beauty than any print shop in Kentucky ever saw. Misses Virgie and Malla James and Mollie Haney composed the trio—three graces, as it were. Eliza James was their escort, and some how or other the old story of "Beauty and the Beast" bobbed up in the mind of our man about town, and may have controlled his conclusions, although Eliza is fairly passable in his Sunday clothes.

Ben Bigstaff, well known in this section as a Presbyterian evangelist, but now pastor in charge of the churches at St. Helens, Athol and Frozen Creek, passed through here Sunday en route from the latter place to Bath county. Ben is a jolly good fellow, much beliked by all the old confederate soldiers with whom he was a comrade in arms, though now a soldier of the cross. As Artemus Ward was wont to express it, he is amusing, too, when reciting war reminiscences, and as our man about town recently heard a young woman express it, he has "no objections" to talking of those times.

While Ova Kash was attending school here recently he was called by the matron of the dormitory to see about his laundry and asked how his linen was marked. He replied, "You can put all that is O. K. in my pile." The lady did not at first "catch on," and thought him a little impudent in thus slinging slang, as she surmised. The fact that these were his initials, however, suddenly dawned upon her, and the forming frown upon her physiognomy quickly granted right of way to a broad grin. So our man about town "hearn."

The mudhole spoken of in our last week's issue is now a thing of the past and no more a menace to the peace and dignity of the human, horse or mule race. Town Marshal Noddley and posse specially summoned on Friday rocked it out of existence, after first giving it a good brushing. It was game to the last, though, and every time one of the posse hit it with a boulder it squirted back slush in self defense. But they were too many for it, and after a fight furiously waged for hours it gave up the ghost.

Subjects for sermons at the Christian church Sunday are "How to Succeed," at 11 a. m., and "The Beauty of Christ's Character," at 7:45 p. m.

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

AND COUNTRY PRODUCE.

AN EARNEST APPEAL.

Having bought of H. C. Quicksall his interest in the firm of H. F. Pieratt & Co., necessitates a settlement of all the business at once, and I earnestly ask each and every person who owes said firm any amount to call and make settlement, and I wish to say that credit will be no longer extended. It takes money to run business, and money I must have. I hope no one will get offended when I refuse them credit, for this I am compelled to do in justice to myself and business. Remember this is no child's talk, but an actual fact which will be demonstrated by a refusal to let her sell goods on a credit.

Thanking you for past favors, and hoping by selling you goods cheaper than any man to merit your patronage, I remain, yours respectfully,

H. F. PIERATT,

Thirty-four pupils were graduated from the normal school at Waddy.

Dr. Wilson, of Perry county, shot and killed two men reported to belong to the kluks.

Mrs. John Hash, living near Corbin, was fatally gored by a vicious bull the other day.

Four hundred coal miners in the Williamsburg district are on a strike against decrease in wages.

While making railroad ties Clayborn Reynolds was killed by falling over a cliff in Bell county.

John Meddings, of Hanging Rock, O., was kicked to death by a mule at Olive Hill, Carter county.

The Versailles school board has plans under way to erect a $4,000 school building for colored children.

The Ashland coal and iron company have made a reduction of 10 per cent. in the wages of 150 furnace hands.

The penitentiary investigation unearthed a lot of inhuman abuses which are a disgrace to any civilized community.

As an inducement to make subscribers healthy, the Morehead Advance offers to give free a box of liver pills to each new subscriber.

E. C. Million, the gold Democrat who was nominated by the Republicans of Madison county for the legislature, has declined to accept.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Garrard county fair it was agreed to have $1,800 in premiums. Hogs, chickens and sheep are to be excluded.

Two highwaymen attempted to hold up Thompson Jordan, at Harrodsburg, the other night. He ran and was fired at five times, one shot going through his hand.

The Democratic municipal primary election at Mt. Sterling resulted as follows: For Mayor, Geo. W. Baird; for Police Judge, Ben R. Turner; for City Attorney, W. B. White.

Thirty-two car loads of short horn cattle were shipped from Kentucky to the Panhandle district of Texas last week. They were principally heifers, and were purchased at from $20 to $40 per head.

At a festival near Bell station, Christian county, Lethe Pettus, a young girl, was shot in the arm and side by a man named Green, receiving serious if not fatal wounds. Green claims that the shooting was accidental.

Seven Kentucky newspaper men have been nominated thus far to represent their legislative districts in the next general assembly. Perhaps some measures may be taken to pass a general legal advertising law for the state.

An impromptu dog fight took place in a Monticello church one night recently and broke up the meeting. The pastor was so incensed at the disturbance that he offered a dollar apiece for their scalps if brought to him the next morning.

Pete Amsley, the leader of the Weder faction, which has been ready for years to shoot any member of the Boden faction on sight, was killed in Leslie county as he sat in his cabin door. A big mob is in pursuit of the assassin who may be killed on sight.

James Barto, who claims Philadelphia as his home, stole a steamboat from the wharf at Louisville and started down the river with it. He was caught just before going over the falls and brought back. Two large revolvers and 150 cartridges were found on his person.

A valuable stallion and two brood mares belonging to Erasmus Dunn, a Garrard county stock raiser, were poisoned a short time since and died in great agony. Two weeks before Mr. Dunn's barn was destroyed by fire, and he thinks he is the victim of some enemy.

Capt. Noel Gaines, of the McCreary guards of Frankfort, was requested to resign by a number of the members of the company, charging him with misconduct in the late senatorial contest. Capt. Gaines refuses to resign, as eight of the signers to the petition say they signed it through misrepresentation and fourteen others had been previously reduced to ranks for unbecoming conduct. He is willing to stand a court-martial.

The Waddy correspondent of the Louisville Evening Post reports the following circumstance: "On the farm of J. M. Whitehouse, a well known and prominent farmer of this neighborhood, a cow yesterday dropped seventy calves. Sixty-nine of them were about the size of rats, but fully developed in every way. They were all marked very much as their mother. They did not live but a short while, but were active while alive. The other one is a full size calf and is living. It seemed as much surprised at the presence of so many brothers and sisters as the people who were attracted to the spot by the unusual occurrence."

A few years since Mr. Clarence Johnson, with a party of other Louisville people, made a trip to the old world, and while in Jerusalem ate grapes from vines of the various holy varieties, which are so often mentioned in Biblical history. He saved the seed until he had quite a number, and these he sent his father, N. L. Johnson, 113 East Jacob street. As an experiment the latter planted them. The result is a nice lot of vines, and this year they are bearing for the first time, and are full of grapes, so when the time comes for the fruit to ripen the family expect to enjoy a rare treat. Mr. Johnson, sr., says he never knew a more prolific lot of vines.—Louisville Post.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism.
The Fairhaven (N. Y.) Register says: "James Rowland, of this village, states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she had used ever did her as much good. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by J. T. Day."

An instantaneous photograph of Curt. Quickall, as he appeared in his new brown straw hat.

What Tom is Doing.
Congressman Fitzpatrick has received a petition from a number of his constituents asking that a tariff be levied upon a Canadian seed that closely resembles the Bluegrass seed. The petition says that this seed is mixed with the bluegrass seed and besides making the grass practically worthless for grazing or any other purpose, does an immense amount of damage. Mr. Fitzpatrick said that he thought he could get a tariff placed upon it, after he made an explanation of the case.

NERVOUS Troubles are due to impoverished blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the One True Blood Purifier and NERVE TONIC.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. For a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail mention THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD and send your full postoffice address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghampton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

For Mothers!

THE discomforts and dangers of child-birth can be almost entirely avoided. Wine of Cardui relieves expectant mothers. It gives tone to the genital organs, and puts them in condition to do their work perfectly. That makes pregnancy less painful, shortens labor and hastens recovery after child-birth. It helps a woman bear strong healthy children.

McElree's Wine of Cardui

has also brought happiness to thousands of homes barren for years. A few doses often brings joy to loving hearts that long for a darling baby. No woman should neglect to try it for this trouble. It cures nine cases out of ten. All druggists sell Wine of Cardui. $1.00 per bottle.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. LOUISA HALE, of Jefferson, Ga., says: "When I first took Wine of Cardui we had been married three years, but could not have any children. Nine months later I had a fine girl baby."

TEN FOR FIVE CENTS.

This special form of Ripans Tablets is prepared from the original prescription. It is really put up for the purpose of meeting the universal modern demand for a low price.

DICTIONARY.—Take one at meal or bed time or whenever you feel poorly. Swallow it whole, with or without a mouthful of water. They cure all stomach troubles: head pain; induce sleep; prolong life. An invaluable tonic. Best Spring Medicine. No matter what the matter, one will do you good. One gives relief—a cure will result if directions are followed.

The five-cent packages are not yet to be had of all dealers, although it is probable that almost any druggist will obtain a supply when requested by a customer to do so; but in any case a single carton, containing ten tablets, will be sent, postage paid, to any address for five cents in stamps forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., 30-32 Spruce St., New York. Until the goods are thoroughly introduced to the trade, agents and peddlers will be supplied at a price which will allow them a fair margin of profit, viz.: 1 dozen cartons for 40 cents—by mail 45 cents. 12 dozen (144 cartons) for $4.25—by mail for $4.50. 25 dozen (2500 cartons) for $8.25. 50 dozen (5000 cartons) for $16.00. Cash with the order in every case, and freight or express charges at the buyer's cost.

THE HERALD.

LOCAL LAOTONICS.

Noah Cisco made a flying trip to Torrent Saturday.

Several of the young folks have been attending the county examinations.

Wiley Perkins and wife, of Lacy creek, were in town shopping Saturday.

Henry Cecil, who has been attending the H. G. A. here, is now at home recruiting.

Miss Lula M. Kash, who has been visiting at Fincastle for quite awhile, returned home Saturday.

The many friends of Mrs. Cora Andre will regret to learn that she is suffering with granulated eyelids.

Richmond DeBusk and wife were visiting Dr. John Taulbee and family the latter part of the week.

John M. Rose bought of Miles Nickell, of Morgan county, several head of cattle, paying $175 for the bunch.

This is examination week at the academy and all are also busily engaged in preparations for the entertainment.

There will be an admission fee of 10 cents charged for the declamatory contests and the debate; all others are free.

Mrs. Godsey will please accept the thanks of the editor and his better for a bountiful mess each of lettuce and onions.

Arberry Brooks returned last week from Powell county, and says he likes everybody there except a certain section boss. He has our thanks for a subscription.

Mrs. Miles Wilson, of Lacy creek, will please accept the thanks of the editor and his better for a fine mess of the largest and nicest onions we have seen this season.

The Lexington and Eastern railway has put on a Sunday train for the summer season. Train leaves Lexington at 7:45 a. m., and returning leave Jackson at 2:25 p. m.

Little Lizzie Francis Rose, daughter of Dave Rose, and niece of Mrs. Ed F. Cecil, has the thanks of the editor and his better for a fine mess of extra fine pie plant or rhubarb.

Butler Razor, colored, of Daysboro, last week made 800 rails with three gluts. The gluts were made of unseasoned wood, and Butler is still using the same this week in making more rails.

Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey is an important addition to the list of the world's most valuable medicines. Harmless in its nature, yet almost infallible in its action, it is undoubtedly the most efficacious means known today of curing coughs, colds, and kindred diseases.

Squire Harve Vest, of Gillmore, was here Saturday to attend the fair meeting, and told our man about town that he was expecting every day to lose his head. He didn't mean that he is going daft but referred to his probable decapitation by the new fourth assistant postmaster general, as he is now the p. m. at his place.

Sam Tabor, of Rothwell, is visiting friends in and around Hazel Green, and drinking the mineral waters that here abound for his health. "Per Sam" spends a few days with us every spring or fall, and says that he always returns home recuperated mentally and physically, owing to rest from his labors and the rejuvenating air.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, Frank Johnson, of Lacy creek, on Thursday, May 20, at 7 o'clock p. m., Willie Rice, of Magoffin county, and Miss Fannie E. Johnson, Elder J. T. Pieratt officiating. The couple left Friday morning for Magoffin, where they will make their future home. Wishing them a successful voyage on the sea of life, we wish to remind them that THE HERALD would make home happier, and now is the time to subscribe.

The lumber camp at Gate City, Menefee county, is now a thing of the past, the Gardner and Holderby heirs having enjoined the company that was operating from cutting any more timber. Harve Nickell, late mayor and chief cook, is, therefore, now out of a job, but only temporarily, as he has engaged to H. F. Pieratt and will go to counter hopping after July 1. Mr. Nickell has a host of friends here who are glad to see him again with us, and when he takes his new position will render him a hearty welcome.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Grassy creek, Morgan county, on Thursday, the 20th inst., Mr. William Hollen, of Lane, Wolfe county, and Miss Susie Murphy, Elder William Yocum, of Morgan county, officiated in tying the nuptial knot that binds "Two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one" and pronounced them man and wife. Whom God has joined together let no man put asunder. The bride was dressed in white, trimmed with orange colored ribbons and lace, and her trousseau, which was very becoming, was admired by all. The groom wore the regulation black, and altogether the pair presented a very pretty picture.

The attendants were Miss Maggie Kash, of our town, who was also attired in white, and Eli Kash, of Morgan. They, too, made an imposing picture, and it is whispered that the young lady was rehearsing, as it were, for the part she is soon to play in a similar affair. Through the kindness of the bride and the courtesy of Mrs. S. B. Kash and Miss Maggie, the editor, his better, and THE HERALD crew were treated to a bountiful supply of the wedding cake, for which we return thanks. We wish the happy young couple a happy voyage along life's tempestuous sea, and hope they may never encounter any breakers or ill winds greater than little squalls. Now is the time to subscribe.

Rev. Mr. Mann had a well bucket made a few days since and remarked at the time that he had no well, but said he was going on the principle of a man he knew that bought a horse blanket. A friend, seeing the man with the blanket, asked him what he wanted with it. "Well," he replied, "I had the money to buy it, it suited me and I bought, thinking that after awhile maybe I could raise money to buy me a saddle, and sometime, perhaps, be fortunate enough to own a horse." Brother Mann said he had the same hopeful view, and while he had an opportunity to get the well bucket secured it, thinking time might bring him the well. Our man about town did not think it at the time, but this may be a gentle hint to the members of his flock that a well would be a handy thing to have about the house.

On Saturday night at Campton the Kentucky Wesleyan academy gave its first entertainment and we must say it was a success. Miss Sallie Tutt, daughter of Steve Tutt, won the medal in the young ladies contest, in which there were seven young ladies, and all of them acquitted themselves well. On Monday night the general entertainment spoke well for the school. The house was full to overflowing and it was grand. The drills were very good, but the "Tenting on the old camping ground" brought many a tear to the old veterans eyes as the wounded and dying lay around the old camp fire. It was so natural. Blessed be the soldiers was uttered by many a one. Hurrah for the K. W. A. You certainly have made a good beginning. Let the good work go on.

Commencement at Hazel Green academy May 29—June 2.

Declamatory contests Saturday evening at 8:15.

Annual sermon Sunday at 11 a. m., at the Christian church.

Public entertainment by the two societies, Monday 8:15 p. m.

First annual debate, Tuesday, 8:15 p. m.

Commencement exercises Wednesday, 10:30 a. m.

Annual address to Y. P. S. C. E. Wednesday, 8 p. m.

Several young people of our town attended the declamatory contest of the young ladies at Wesleyan academy, Campton, on Saturday night last, and say the entertainment was quite a success. Miss Susie Tutt was awarded the medal. The judges were Rev. L. E. Mann and Clay Lacy, of Hazel Green, and Thos. C. Johnson, esq., of Lee county.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones, of Fincastle, are visiting Mrs. Ellen Kash. Mrs. Jones will remain the guest of her mother until after the entertainment at the academy, but Mr. Jones will probably return home to look after his business interests.

Do not fail to read the new ad. of Louis and Gus Straus, the clothiers of Lexington, which appears with this issue, and when you go down to the blue grass metropolis give them a call.

Misses Minnie L. Day and Nettie C. Wheeler attended the entertainment at Campton this week and report a nice time.

Clay Cisco returned Sunday evening from Salyersville, where he had been attending the examination.

AN EARNEST APPEAL.

Having bought of H. C. Quicksall his interest in the firm of H. F. Pieratt & Co., necessitates a settlement of all the business at once, and I earnestly ask each and every person who owes said firm any amount to call and make settlement, and I wish to say that credit will be no longer extended. It takes money to run business, and money I must have. I hope no one will get offended when I refuse them credit, for this I am compelled to do in justice to myself and business. Remember this is no child's talk, but an actual fact which will be demonstrated by a refusal to farther sell goods on a credit.

Thanking you for past favors, and hoping by selling you goods cheaper than any man to merit your patronage, I remain, yours respectfully,

STATE SIFTINGS.

The English colony at Middlesboro will celebrate Queen Victoria's jubilee in royal style.

Mrs. R. P. McChord, of Brooksville, has four barrels of soap made in the last year of the war.

Mrs. Meeks, the Shelby county woman from whom Louisville doctors removed a tumor weighing 245 pounds, died a few days later.

A mob destroyed the tobacco beds of T. J. Rogers, in Scott county. All the plants were pulled up and the canvas torn into shreds.

Thomas Higgins and Charles Arnett were sentenced to two years each in the penitentiary for killing Ben Risner in Magoffin county.

Five Caldwell county children, who had been bitten by a mad dog, were taken to Paducah recently to have the mad stone applied.

Great excitement was created in the Warnock neighborhood, in Greenup county, by the finding of parts of a human body in the woods.

Farmers throughout Garrard county are suffering losses of horses and hogs with pink eye and cholera. One man lost 35 hogs out of a bunch of 39.

The grand jury of Nicholas county refused to indict Pete King for murder committed 25 years ago, and for which offense he was recently lodged in jail.

At Pineville, Samuel Dison and Dave Young quarreled over the affections of Fannie Brown. Young was perhaps fatally shot. All the parties are colored.

Manlius Hardy, of Clark county, sent to President McKinley a large sycamore pipe, with a bowl two inches deep. The present was acknowledged in a courteous letter.

At Flatwood, Garrard county, Wm. Conn, Jr., shot and killed Jacob Calloway, and fatally wounded Robert Broadus, constable. The trouble was about a woman.

John Jones, who died at Corbin the other day, was born on the 24th day of the month, was married on the 24th, died on the 24th, and leaves a widow 24 years of age.

Amanda Kash, colored, was given a hearing at Maysville on a charge of uttering counterfeit coin, and was sent to jail. She silvered pennies and passed them for dimes.

While Louisville, Covington and other cities in the state have had an increase in the number of children of school age, Lexington shows a falling off of 1,581 children from last year.

Four years in the penitentiary for stealing four chickens is a pretty stiff price to pay, but that is what Virgil Mukes, colored, got for breaking into a chicken house at Carrollton.

E. J. Godbey, a prominent farmer of Casey county, has in his possession a bible published in 1645. Although the leaves are yellow with age the print is as clear as though it had just come from the press.

John Bailey attempted to force an entrance into a room of Gran Burton's residence, at Hyden, where he had left a jug of whisky. Burton became enraged and beat him, perhaps fatally, with a fence rail.

The jury in the case of Mrs. Jennie Judd, widow of Thomas Judd, of Catlettsburg, against the C. & O. railroad for $40,000 damages for the killing of her husband, gave the plaintiff a judgment for $18,500.

At Paducah, Simon Gregory, aged 86, was killed by Dave Cole, aged 83. Both were inmates of the county infirmary, and Cole became incensed at Gregory because his hands trembled and struck him on the head with a club.

Bud Wilson and Henry Scott attacked the Cornetts, father and son, at Redbird, Leslie county, and when the smoke had cleared away the elder Cornett and Scott were dead and the other two badly wounded. The younger Cornetts receiving a probably fatal wound.

The Carlisle Mercury says E. P. Harney, of that place, killed 184 rats in 24 hours. The Paris Kentuckian Citizen, commenting, says Mr. Harney made a rattling good record, and must have made a raid on the rodents while they were holding a ratification meeting.

At Murphysville, Mason county, Buffington Ferman, a popular young man, ran a foot race for 100 yards with a fellow on horseback. As they were returning Ferman suddenly sank to the ground and was a corpse in a few minutes. When he fell his companions thought he was fooling, and then began to throw clods at him.

J. H. Boggs has a knife of the heavy hawk bill pattern that has quite a history, as it was this weapon that did the cutting of the boards and the digging of the tunnels that liberated him and 24 companions of the confederate army from the white oak dungeon at Camp Douglas on the night of October 17, 1864. —Nicholasville Journal.

The members of the Fayette county fiscal court are discussing a scheme to replace the burned courthouse with a half million dollar structure covering the entire square, to contain in addition to the court room and county offices, a large auditorium suitable for state conventions, and capable of seating 5,000, business offices and offices for professional men.

J. C. Caldwell sold to J. W. Bales, agent, eight hundred head of fat cattle at $4.65 per hundred. One half the cattle are to be taken within the next twenty days, and the remainder about July 1. As these cattle will average about 1,400 pounds to the head, the sum total of the deal will approximate $52,000. Mr. Bales is agent for the Schwartz-Schultzberger cattle company, of New York, Chicago and Kansas City. —Danville Advocate.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism. The Fairhaven (N. Y.) Register says: "James Rowland, of this village, states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she had used ever did her as much good. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by J. T. Day.

Her Conscience Smote Her Too Soon.

By one of those lucky inspirations that sometimes come to people a young society bud, at the races Saturday with a jolly party, put a $2 bill on Humbug, just because, as she laughingly explained, she liked the name. When Humbug, a 60 to 1, crossed the line winner, Miss Beauty was speechless with surprise and excitement. She explained that her parents were bitterly opposed to race betting, and now that she had won a cool hundred dollars she was afraid to take it home. She was between the devil and the deep blue sea. In making her choice as to what to do it turned out that she fell into the sea, for she bet all of the hundred dollars on Nancy Till in the next race and—lost. Her parents had heard of her win before she got home that evening, and were greatly pleased. They offered her congratulations instead of scolding her (it makes a lot of difference whether you win or lose in determining how wrong gambling is) and then she had to confess that her coward conscience had made her lose it almost as soon as she had won it. —Evening Post.

The Westfield (Ind.) News prints the following in regard to an old resident of that place: Frank McAvoy, for many years in the employ of the L. N. & A. C. Ry. here, says: 'I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for ten years or longer—I am never without it in my family. I consider it the best remedy of the kind manufactured. I take pleasure in recommending it.' It is a specific for all bowel disorders. For sale by J. T. Day.

FOR SALE—Scholarship in one of the best Business colleges in Ohio; cost $60, will sell for $35. Address, DEMOCRAT, Greenup, Ky.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. For a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail mention THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD and send your full postoffice address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

Pay that subscription you owe us and save further expense.

A Big Drop in Values.

The state board of equalization has completed its labors, and given out the following statement as to its work: Total value of property in the state, as assessed by the county assessors..... $530,085,353. Total value of the same property as equalized by the board..... $549,409,771. Last year the total assessed value was $553,844,339, and the equalized value $579,926,762. This shows that the assessed value this year was $23,000,000 less than last year, while the equalized value is about $21,600,000 less than last year.

Last year the taxes due under the 42 1/2 cent tax was $2,426,438, while this year the 52 1/2 cent rate goes into effect, and the taxes will amount to $2,884,401, or an increase of over $450,000.

ACTINA.

The Great Restorer

The Blind See.

The Deaf Hear.

Only CATARRH CURE.

ACTINA is a marvel of the Nineteenth Century, for by its use the Blind See, the Deaf Hear and Catarrh is impossible. Actina is an absolute certainty in the cure of Catarrh, Pterygia, Myopia, Presbyopia, Common Sore Eyes or Weakness Vision from any cause. No artificial except man wears spectacles. There need not be a spectacle used on the streets of the world, and rarely to read with. Street Glasses Abandoned. Actina also cures Neuritis, Headache, Cold, Sore Throat, Bronchitis and Weak Lungs. Actina is not a snuff or lotion, but a Perfect Electric Pocket Battery, usable at all times and in all places by young or old. The one instrument will cure a whole family of any of the above forms of disease.

Prof. Wilson's Magneto-Conservative Garments

Packed Without Glass. TEN FOR FIVE CENTS.

This special form of Ripans Tablets is prepared from the original prescription, but more economically put up for the purpose of meeting the universal demand for a low priced, efficient medicine.

DIRECTIONS.—Take one at meal or bed time or whenever you feel poorly. Swallow it whole, with or without a mouthful of water.

They cure all stomach troubles: heartburn; indigestion; stomach life. An invaluable tonic. Best Spring Medicine. No matter what the matter, one will do you good. One gives relief—a sure result if directions are followed.

The five-cent package is not yet to be had of all dealers, although it is probable that almost any druggist will supply when requested by a customer to do so.

Carbon, containing ten tablets, will be sent, postage paid, to any address for five cents in stamps, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10, Spruce St., New York. Until the goods are thoroughly introduced to the trade, agents will allow them a fair margin of profit, viz.: 1 dozen cartons for $4.50 by mail for $4.25. 12 dozen cartons for $45.00 by mail for $42.00. 12 dozen cartons for $450.00 by mail for $420.00. 12 dozen cartons for $450.00 by mail for $420.00. Freight and express charges at the buyer's cost.
